MLS Promotes Brent Lintz to Lead Sales & Marketing Departments

Arlington, TX (October 2009) – In an effort to execute its business growth strategy, MLS Data Management Solutions President, John Kirkland, announced the realignment of several key departments under the leadership of Brent Lintz, Director of Information Management. “We are realigning our organizational structure to enhance value provided to our clients and increase our response time to industry changes,” stated Kirkland.

Brent will lead the development and execution of Sales and Marketing functions in addition to the development of new products and services. He will also serve on the company’s senior leadership team. Brent brings a wealth of knowledge and an impressive track record to the organization with over a decade of experience in consulting and enterprise development. His prior work experience includes Sogeti USA, LLC where he worked on the implementation of Enterprise level applications for Microsoft and Game Stop. Brent is a graduate of the University of North Texas.
